MAIN VILLA

The villa was built in 1904 by Hans-Georg Tersling, one of the Riviera's most prominent architects of the time, who also designed the Hotel Metropole in Monte-Carlo and the Grand Hotel du CapMartin.

The property comprises a garden level, ground floor and two upper floors, with a basement.

SEASIDE SPLENDOR

The house boasts an extraordinary panoramic sea view with nothing between it and the rocks below. There are columned balconies on the side facades and large terraces looking out to sea, supported by high stilts that are dug into the rocks.

TIMELESS OPULENCE

The villa is extremely elegant, boasting Belle Epoque features (semi-circular colonnaded loggias) inspired by the Italian Renaissance and in the French style.

THE SWIMMING POOL

To one side of the house there is an immense, rectangular infinity pool measuring 25 x 12 metres, with a natural stone surround. The pool area is superb, with views over Monaco and the sea, and is surrounded by perfectly maintained lawns. There is a pool house of high standing. The pool is lined with mosaic tiles. It is heated which means it can be enjoyed all year round.

THE LAND

The property is genuinely at the edge of the sea and is set on a magnificent plot of land measuring 3,2 hectares. This plateau of land is above a cliff, and one can walk down to the sea (or more precisely, to the Chemin des Douaniers).

COASTAL MAJESTY

The sumptuous gardens are perfectly maintained and boast breathtaking views over the sea and Monaco. The land is relatively flat all the way to the south edge of the main house, where it plunges straight into the sea. It is mainly planted with Mediterranean species - olive, fruit, palm, mimosa and pine trees, together with flower beds.

TENNIS COURT

Surrounded by lush greenery and the soothing Mediterranean breeze, our tennis court provides the perfect balance of recreation and relaxation, allowing you to savor the joy of the game while immersing yourself in the natural splendor of the region

HELIPORT

Nestled in the heart of the French Riviera, our exquisite villa offers an exclusive amenity that sets it apart – a private helipad. This luxurious feature not only ensures seamless access to the finest destinations along the Côte d'Azur but also provides a breathtaking, bird's-eye view of the region's stunning landscapes.
